WOMEN OF THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE HOLY FAMILY
CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA

...To so plan and emphasize the corporate life of the Churchwomen of your branch that all they do in worship, education and action may be an expression of Christian fellowship and a special way to consecrate all our gifts and all our work in the service of our Lord.

...To so fully understand the Program of the whole Church in the world, nation, diocese and parish that participation and stewardship may be intelligent, wholehearted and sacrificial.

...To be aware that changing patterns of organization bring new emphasis of responsibility for chapter officers so the planning for participation in all fields of service will include a larger number of women.

PRAYERS FOR EPISCOPAL CHURCHWOMEN

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, bless we pray Thee, our work for the extension of Thy Kingdom, and make us so thankful for the precious gift to us of Thy beloved Son, that we may pray fervently, labor diligently, and give liberally to make Him known to all nations as their Saviour and their King: through the same Jesus Christ our Lord,
Amen.

Almighty God, whose love reacheth unto the world's end, and who didst send Thy blessed Son to redeem all mankind: Help us, we pray Thee, so to reveal Thy love in prayer and work and stewardship, that by Thy spirit all nations and peoples may be baptized into one body, even as all are redeemed by one Saviour; through Jesus Christ Our Lord.
Amen.

FOREWORD

"The Women of the Church." What a truly great and wonderful title you bear. In these simple words each of you is placed in a great and powerful company. You are united in a real way with Mary, who sat at our Lord's feet to learn from him, and with Martha, who cooked his supper. You share the heritage of queens and of chambermaids. Women who loved our Lord stood at the foot of the Cross. Women went on Easter Sunday to prepare a dead body for its final rest, and they met the Risen Lord.

Women of the past have witnessed to our Lord in many ways. More than one died for her faith in years gone by. Last year one went to serve in South America the very savages who had killed her husband. Another less dramatically said the right word that brought healing to two persons who hated one another.

Each of you will in your own unique way be a witness to Him this coming year. You will witness to those who may work with you. You will witness to your husband and to your children. You will witness to neighbors and to your children's playmates. This is part of what it means to be a woman of the Church.

Your job is not an easy one. In the midst of the countless demands upon you, it is not within your power to be the loving, forgiving, out-going witness that you should like to be all the time. It is not within your power to be the wife that you would like to be. It is not within your power to be the parent you would like to be. But it is in your power to offer what you do have to God, without excuses or disguises.

This is truly the source of power for those great persons who are and have been women of the Church. For if you give God your imperfect womanliness, your imperfect love, your imperfect patience -- then He can reach into your lives and the lives of those around us and fill them up brimful.

I give thanks for the women of the Church. And I give thanks that you are one of them.

Loren B. Mead, Rector

The work of the Auxiliary is more effective if every one understands the workings of its components. The following list presents the purposes of its basic committees:

Christian Education - to plan for each meeting a program on some aspect of the work of the Church that education may produce constructive action.

Christian Social Relations - to extend the helping hand of the Church in cooperation with other denominations, agencies, and peoples toward a common goal of World Citizenship in a World Democracy.

Church Periodical Club - to constantly renew and enrich our knowledge of a national and international scope by providing Current Resource Material, and to distribute material to other groups as well.

Missions - to create in an open field for looking, an awareness, and to encourage our prayers and consideration and to learn through correspondence needs that we may help fill.

Supply - to aid the National Council by sending boxes of clothing and other supplies to our home and foreign Missions and other needy groups.

United Thank Offering - to express our thankfulness by tokens which ultimately augment the good work of women in our Mission fields.

Our other committees are for our own operation, that we may befriend strangers and children, enjoy Christian fellowship among ourselves, and function on a level of benefit to others.
